

THE QUEEN'S FiVe

The Messengers

We have lost a family member.
Our heroes will have a response.

We keep losing people.
Anthony was a good man.
A great father. His sons will wake up and their father will be gone.

*Damn you Marcus!
That boy saw his father murdered!*

Carson, calm down.
Those boys are in
there grieving.

We need to end this.

We do not wait until tonight.
It looks like a storm is coming in.
We hit them until the rain lets up.

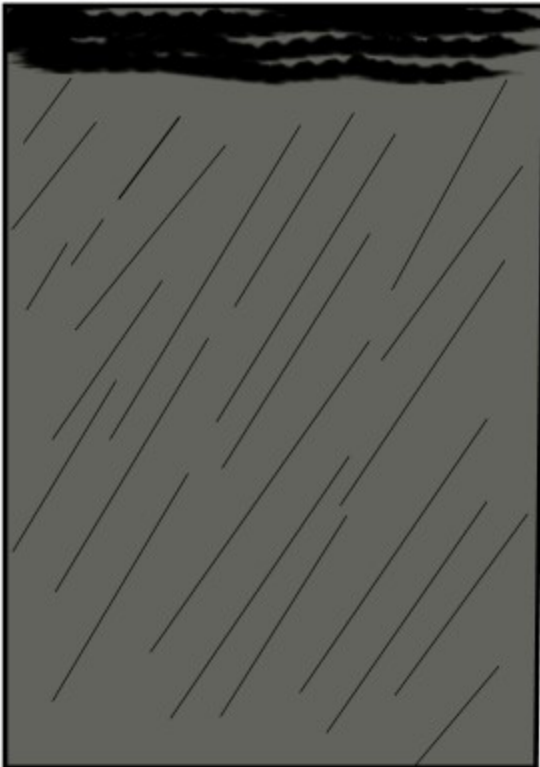

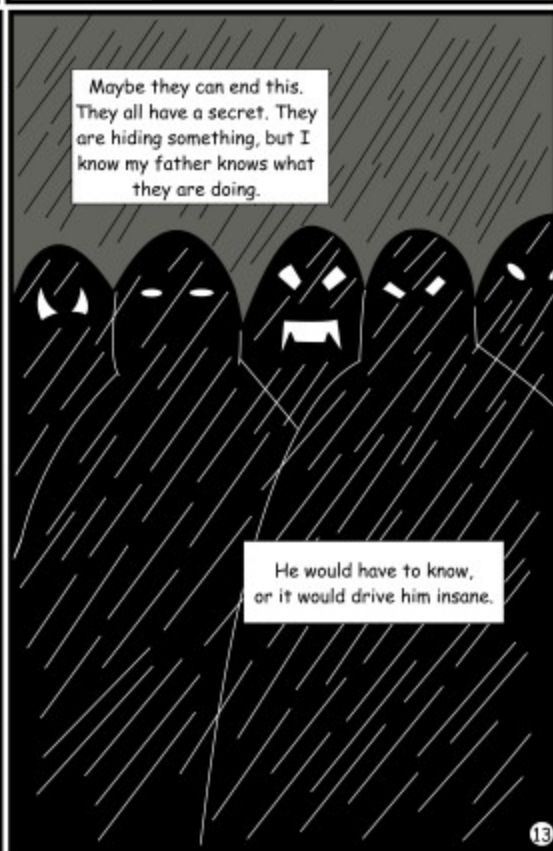

Rain. This is good for our well. We have more people using it now.

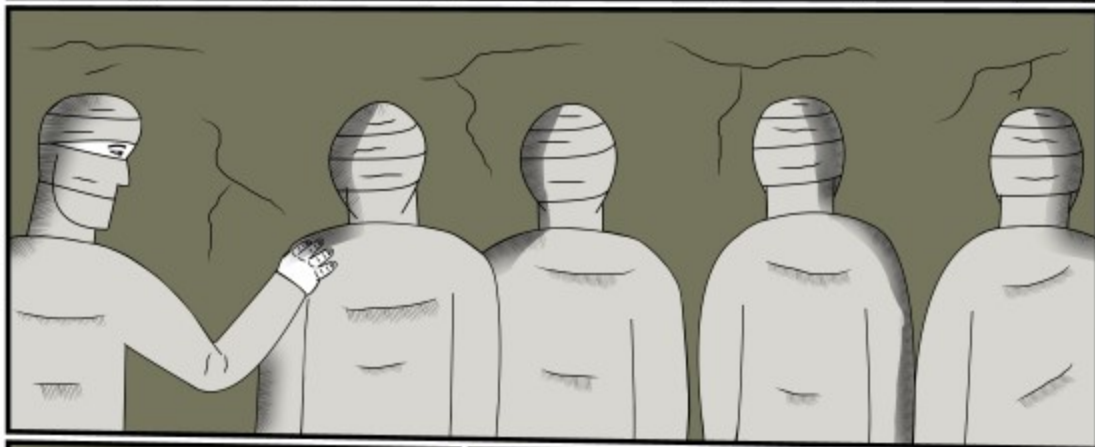

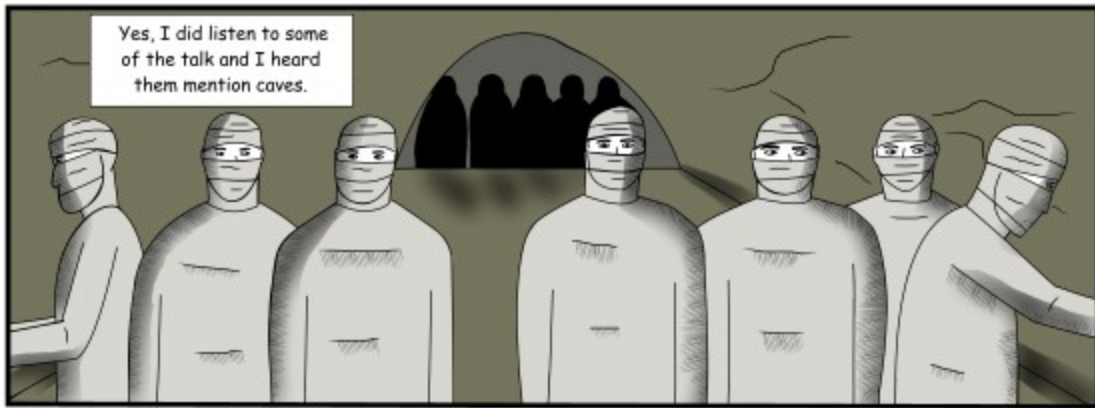

I saw Gabe and the brothers leave. I notice more than my father thinks.

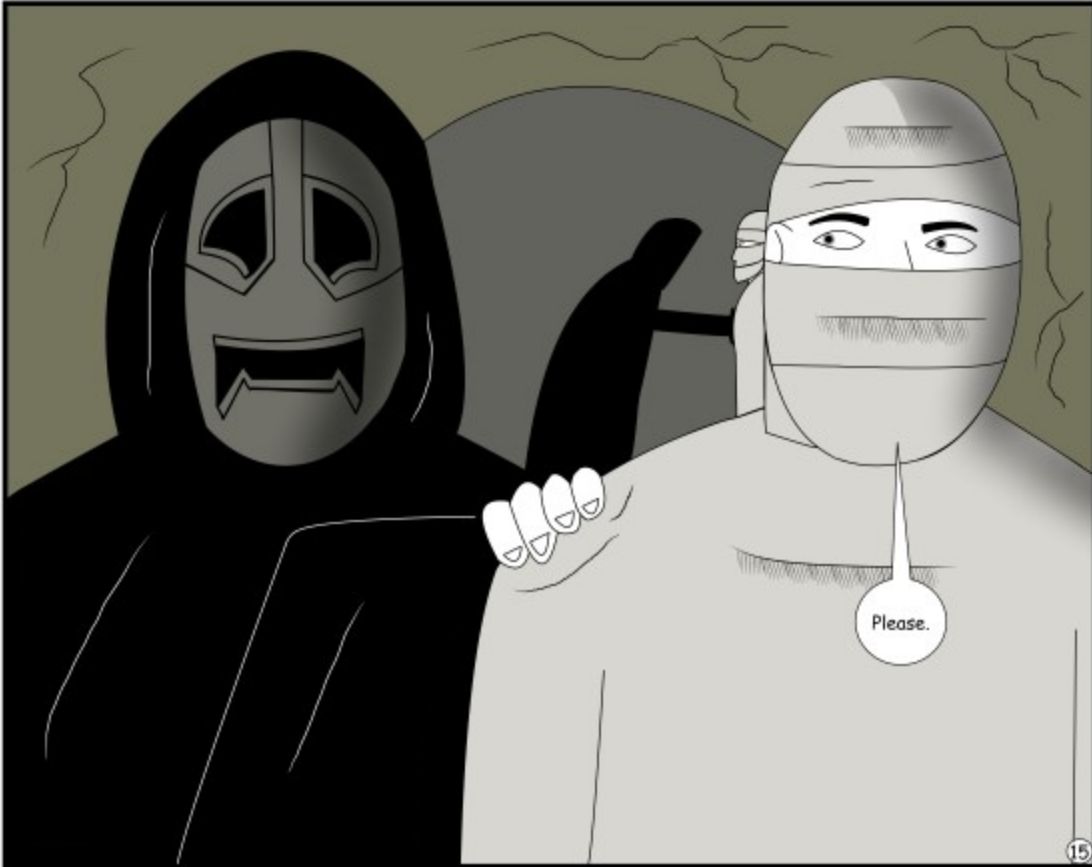

Maybe they can end this. They all have a secret. They are hiding something, but I know my father knows what they are doing.

He would have to know, or it would drive him insane.

They are warriors. I can see that they only fear for their sister.
They seem to be good men.

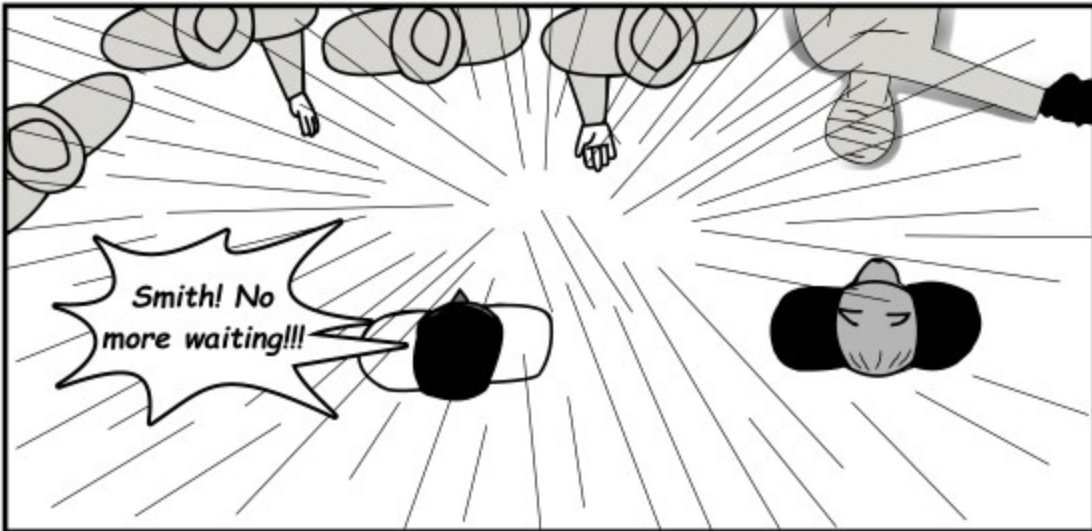

The brothers will help us.

They will keep the bad men away.
