

The Queen's FiVe

Jacob was set free.
Devcon and Lily have been betrayed...

There was no way for him to get loose. I checked those ropes!

You see this?

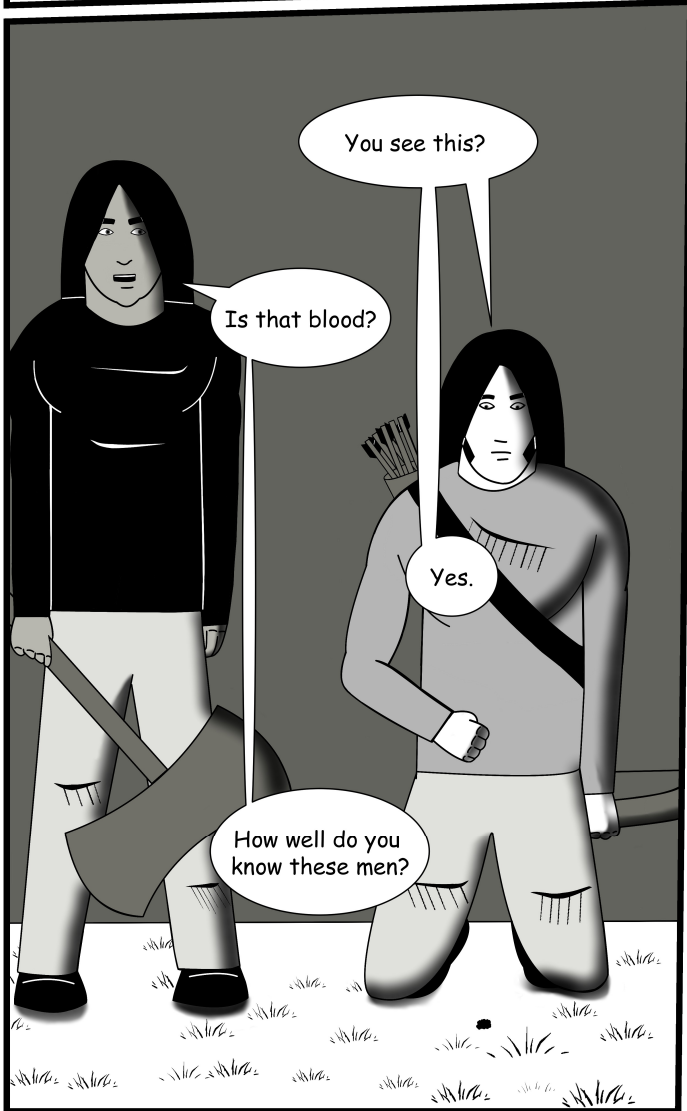

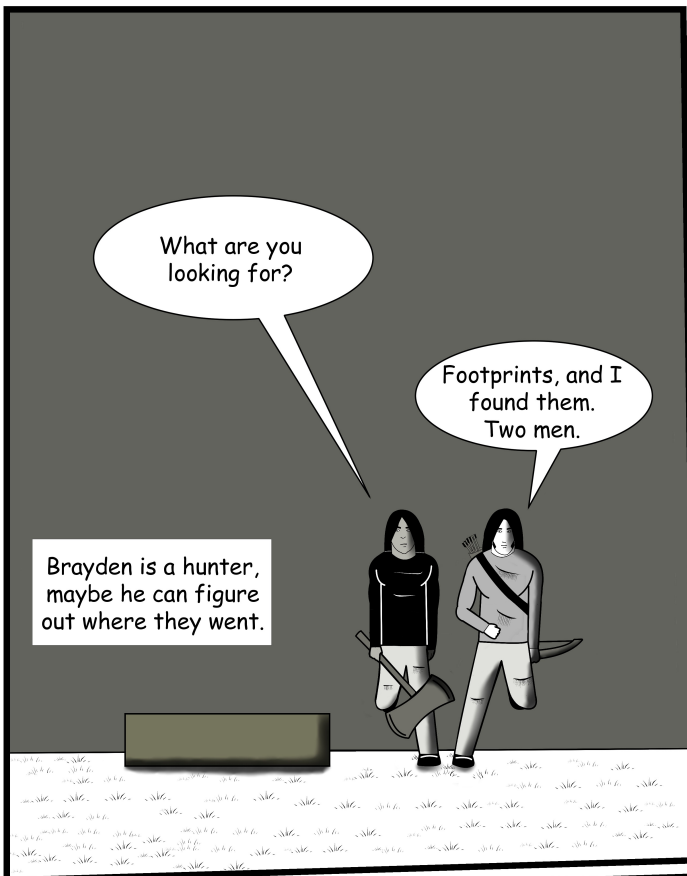

You did not open this?

No. Go see that everyone else is here. I will look in the tunnel.

Hello?

I have not been on a horse in a while.

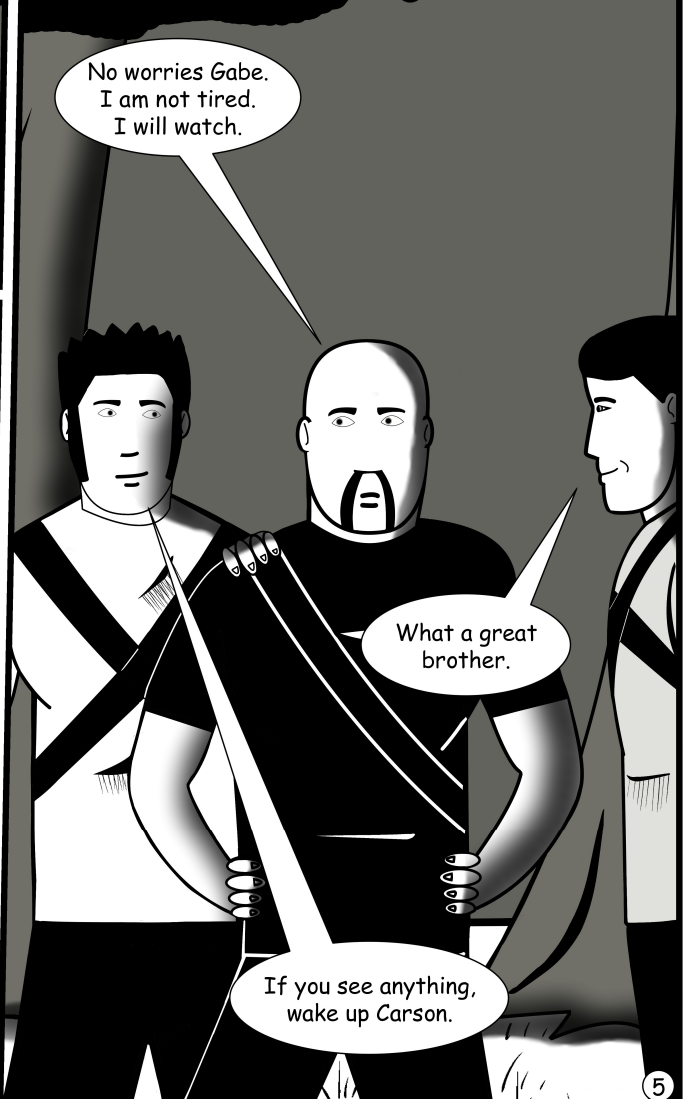

You do most of your talking from there, so be careful.

Idiot.

Who has first watch?

Fine.

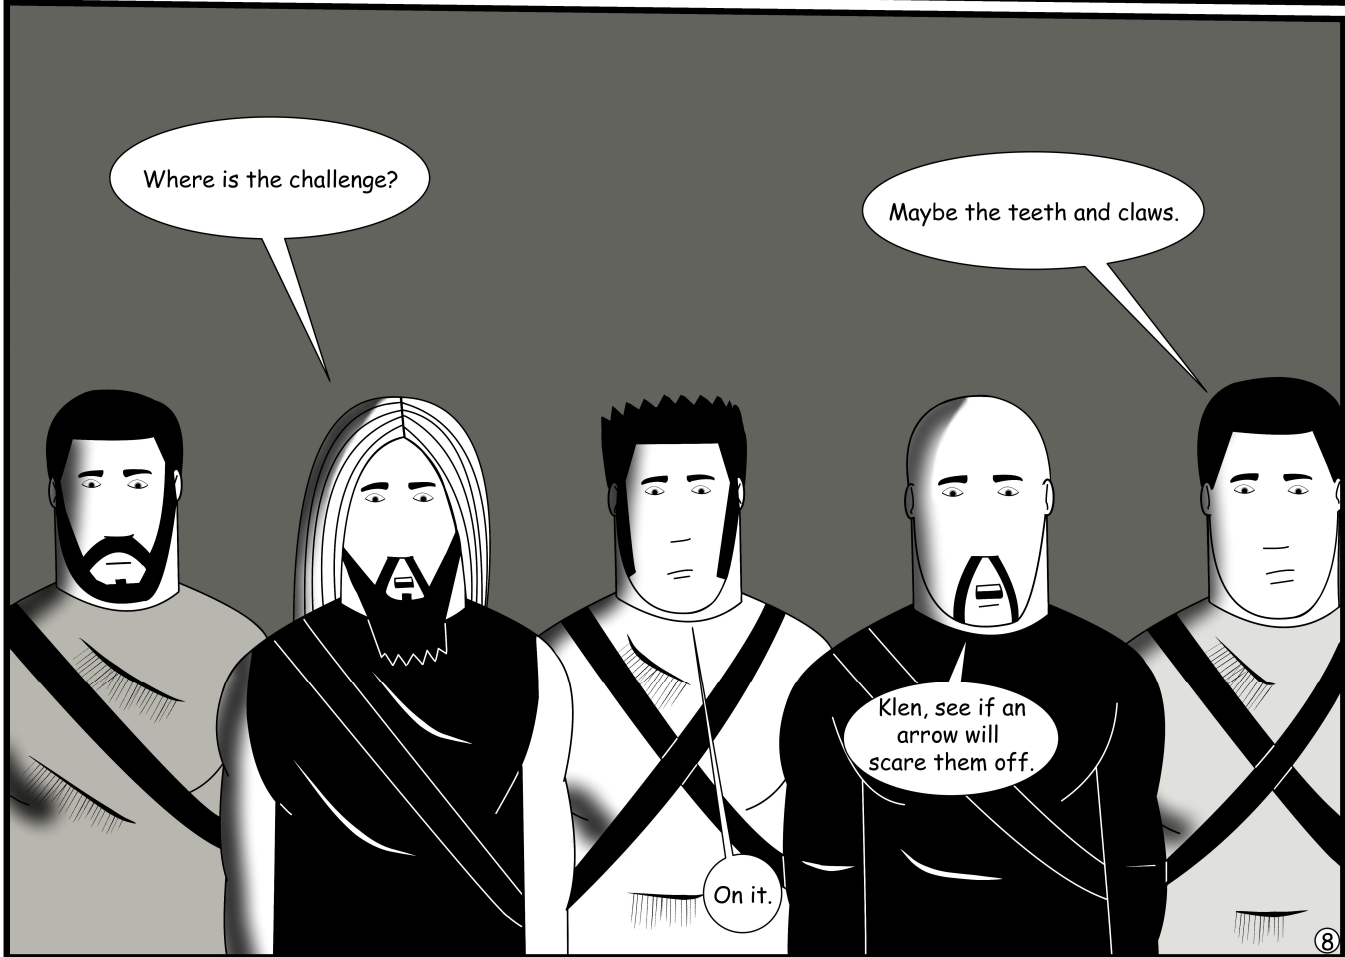

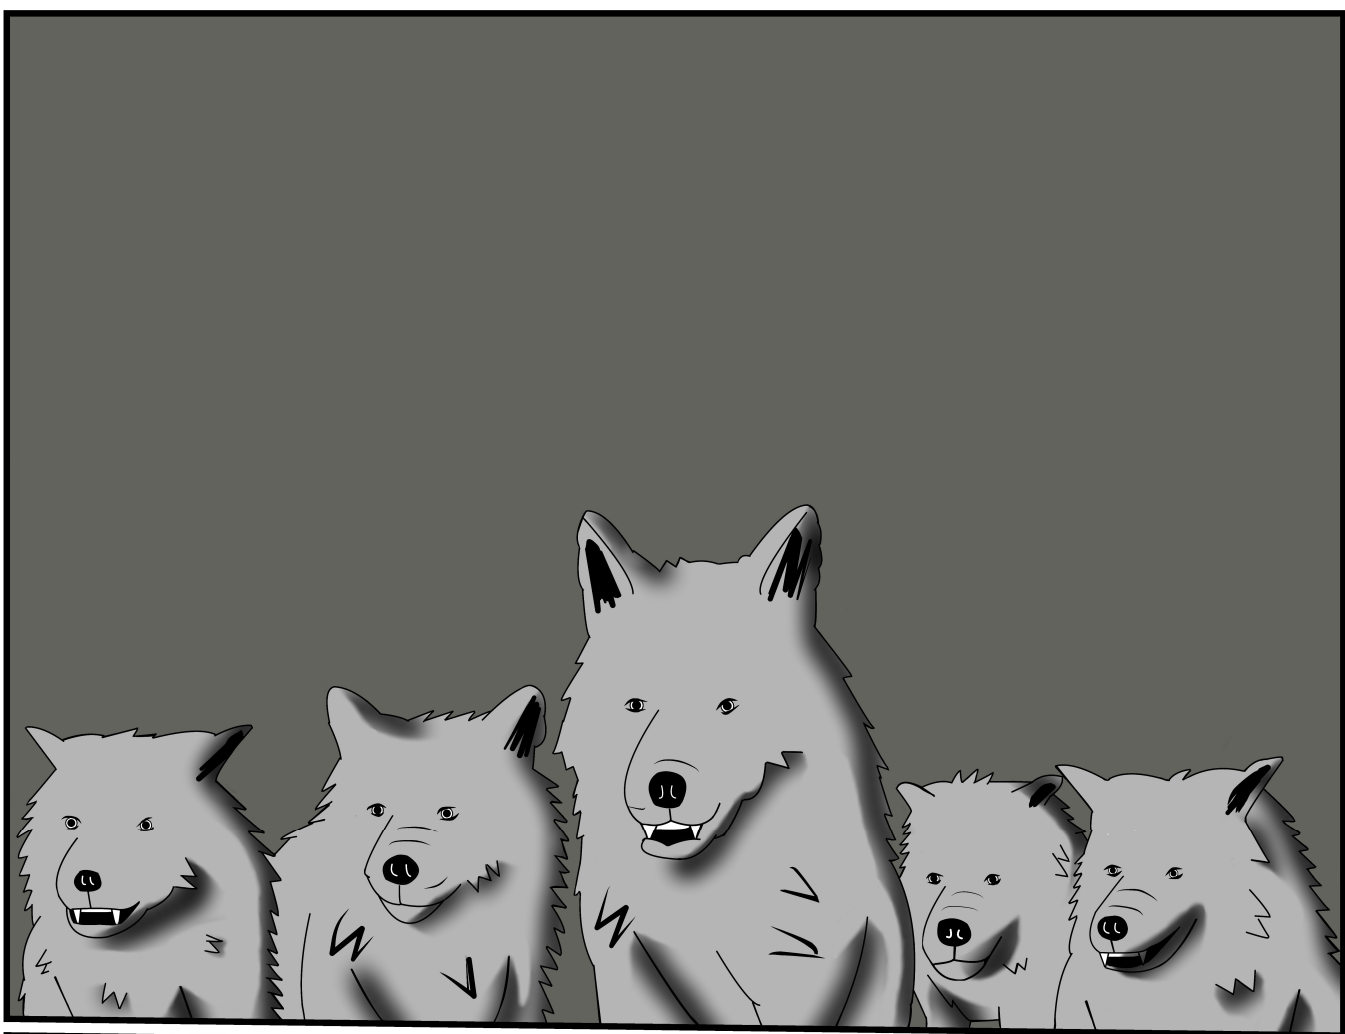

No worries Gabe. I am not tired. I will watch.

What a great brother.

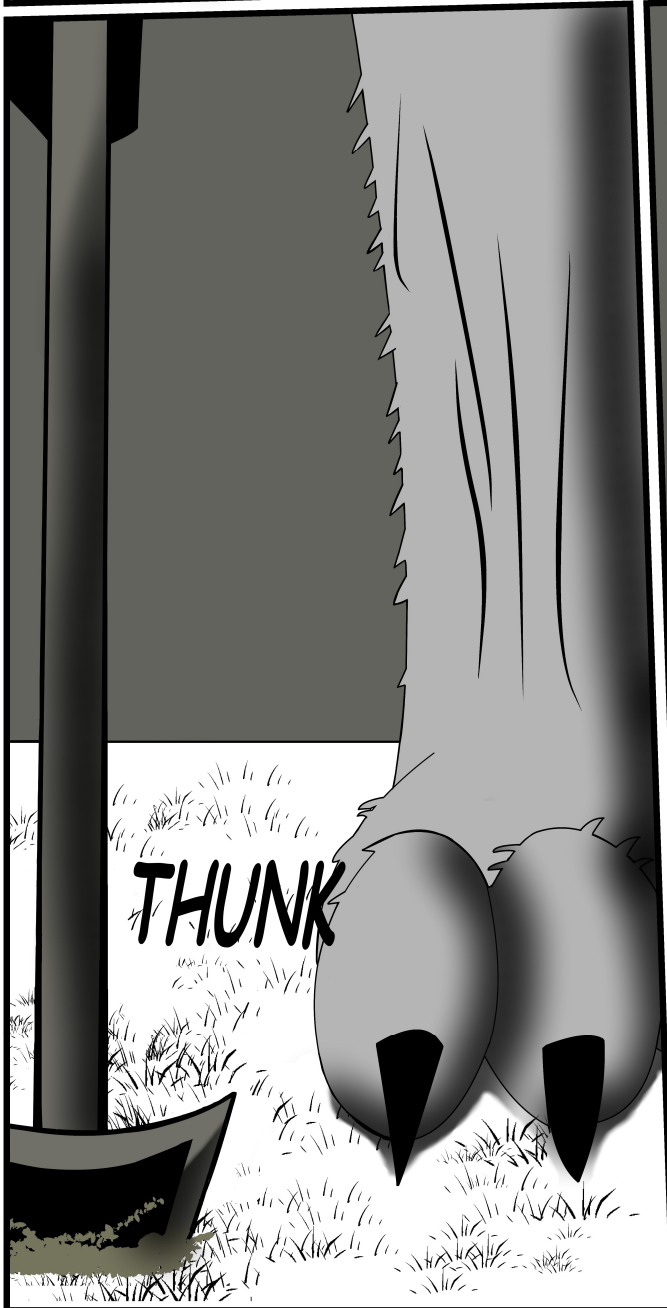

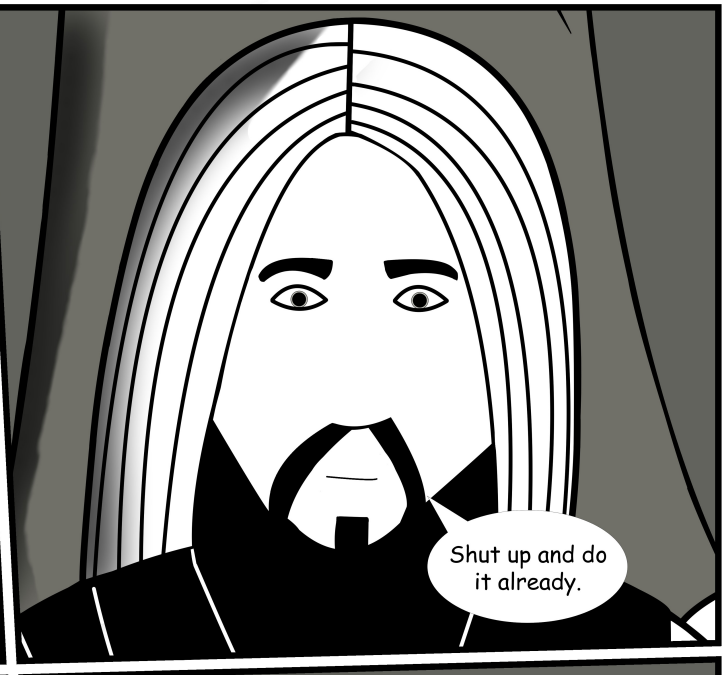

If you see anything, wake up Carson.

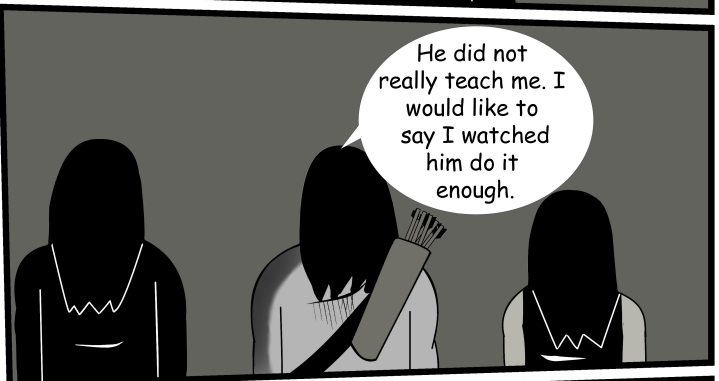

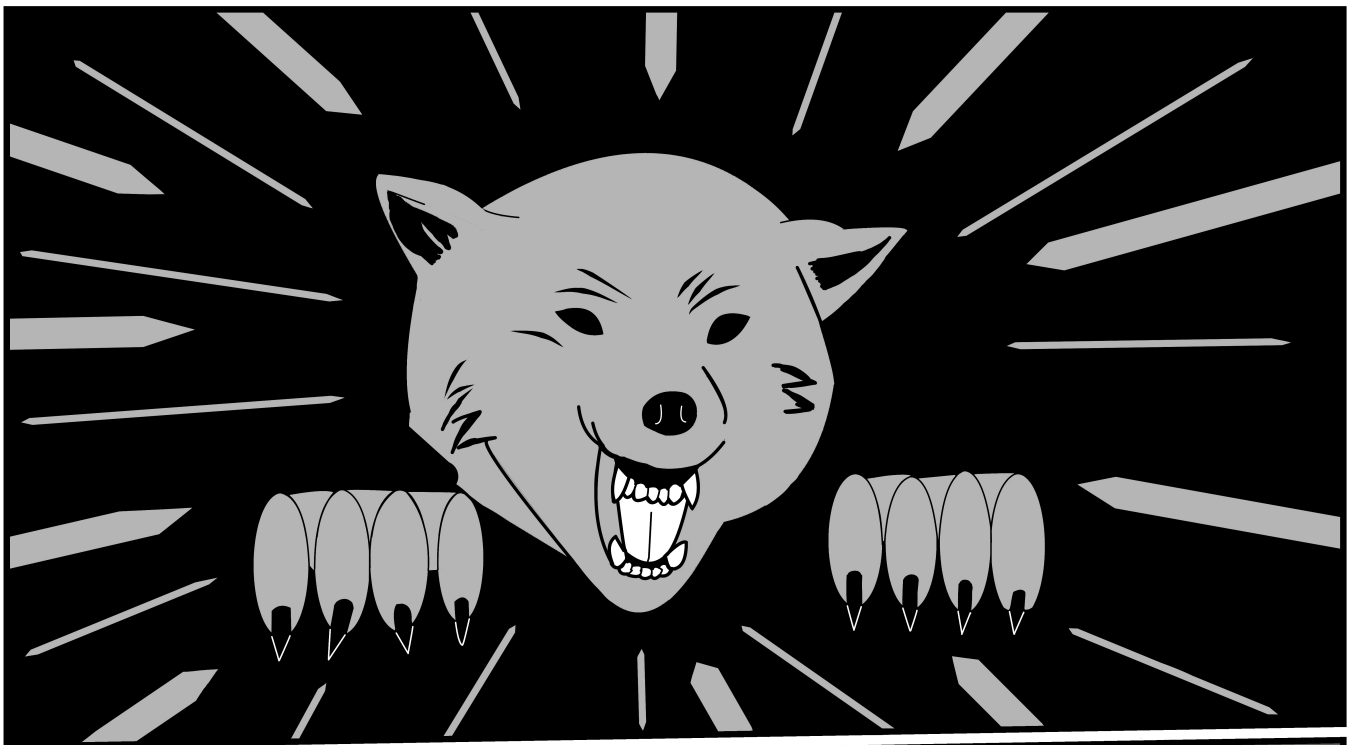

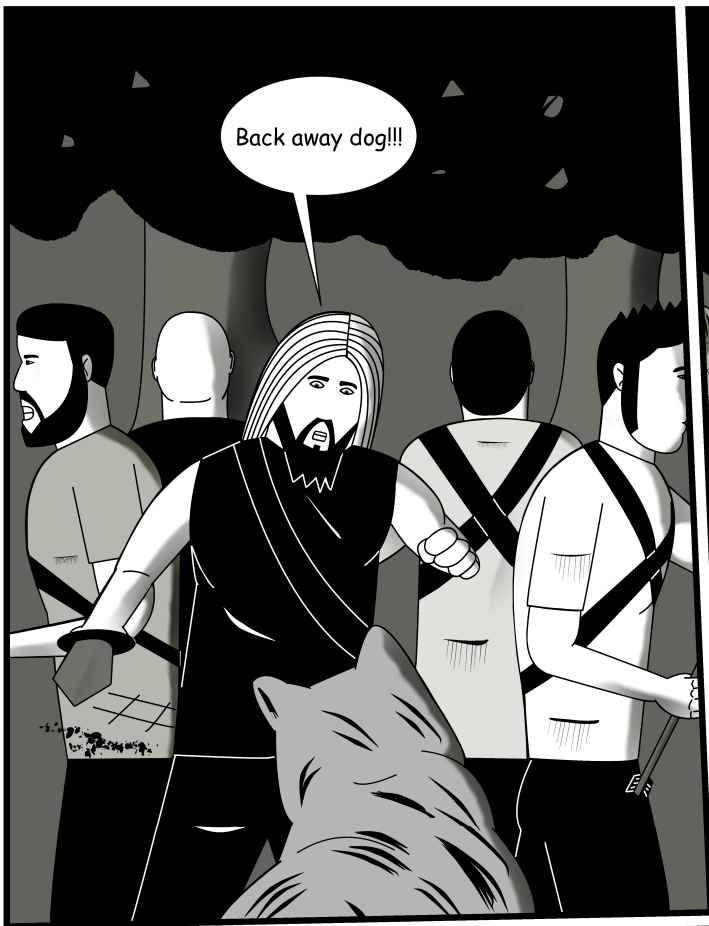

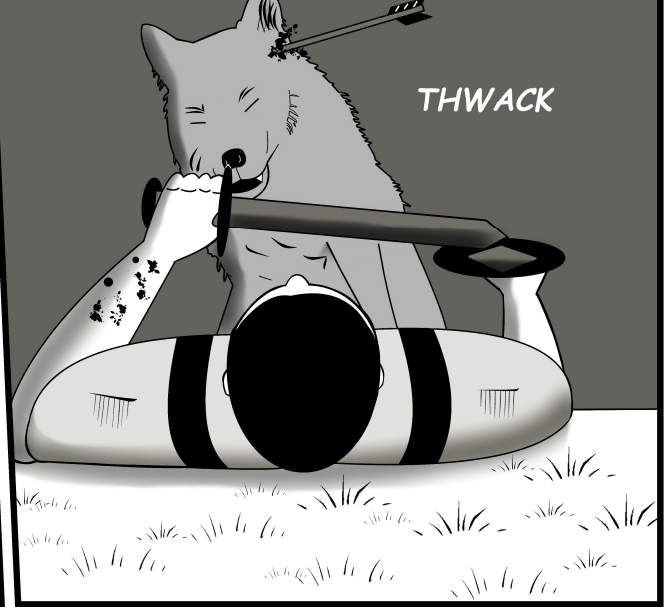

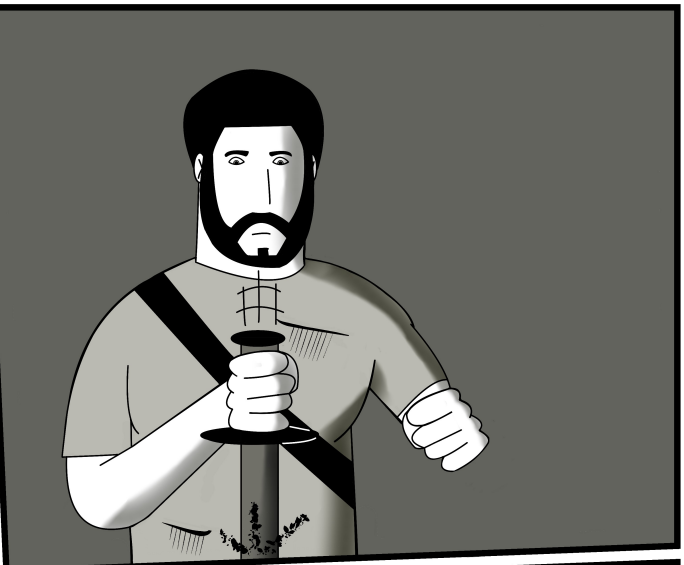

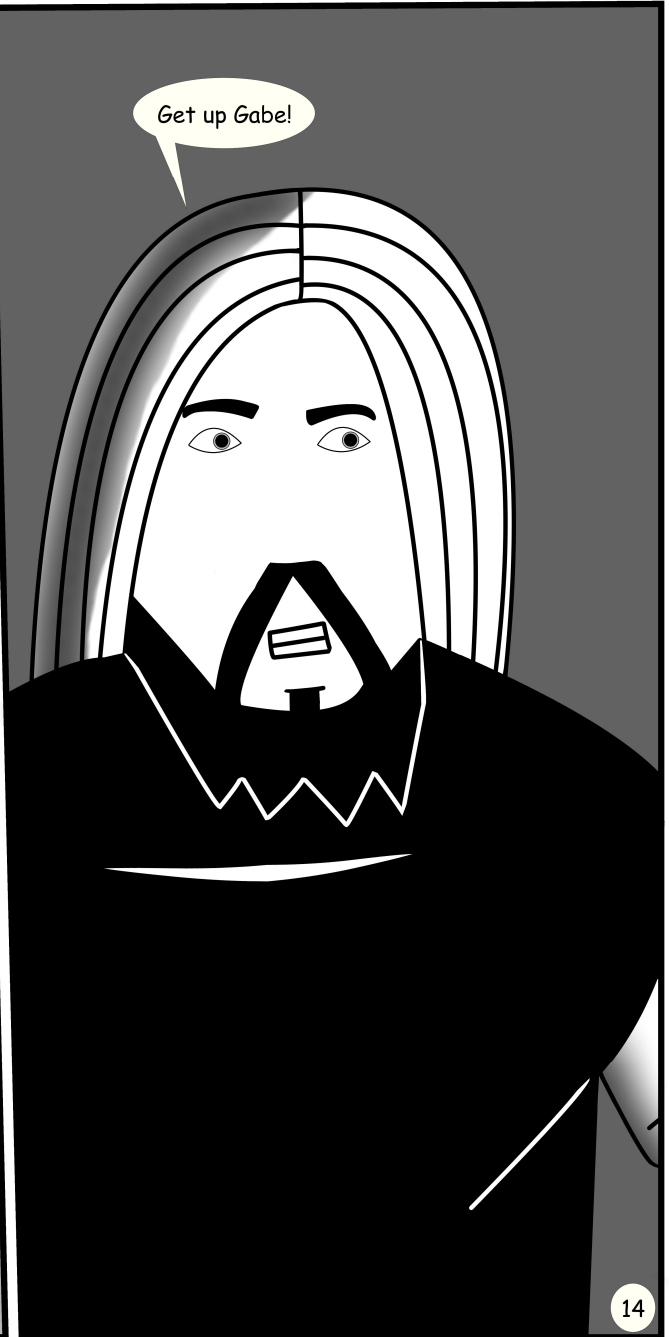

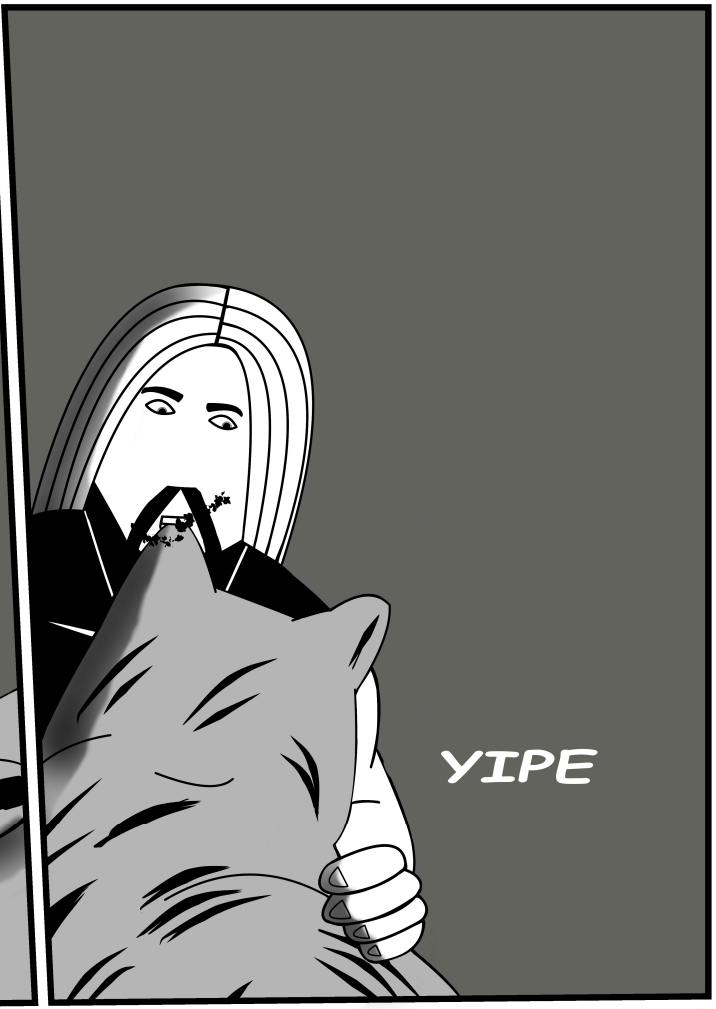

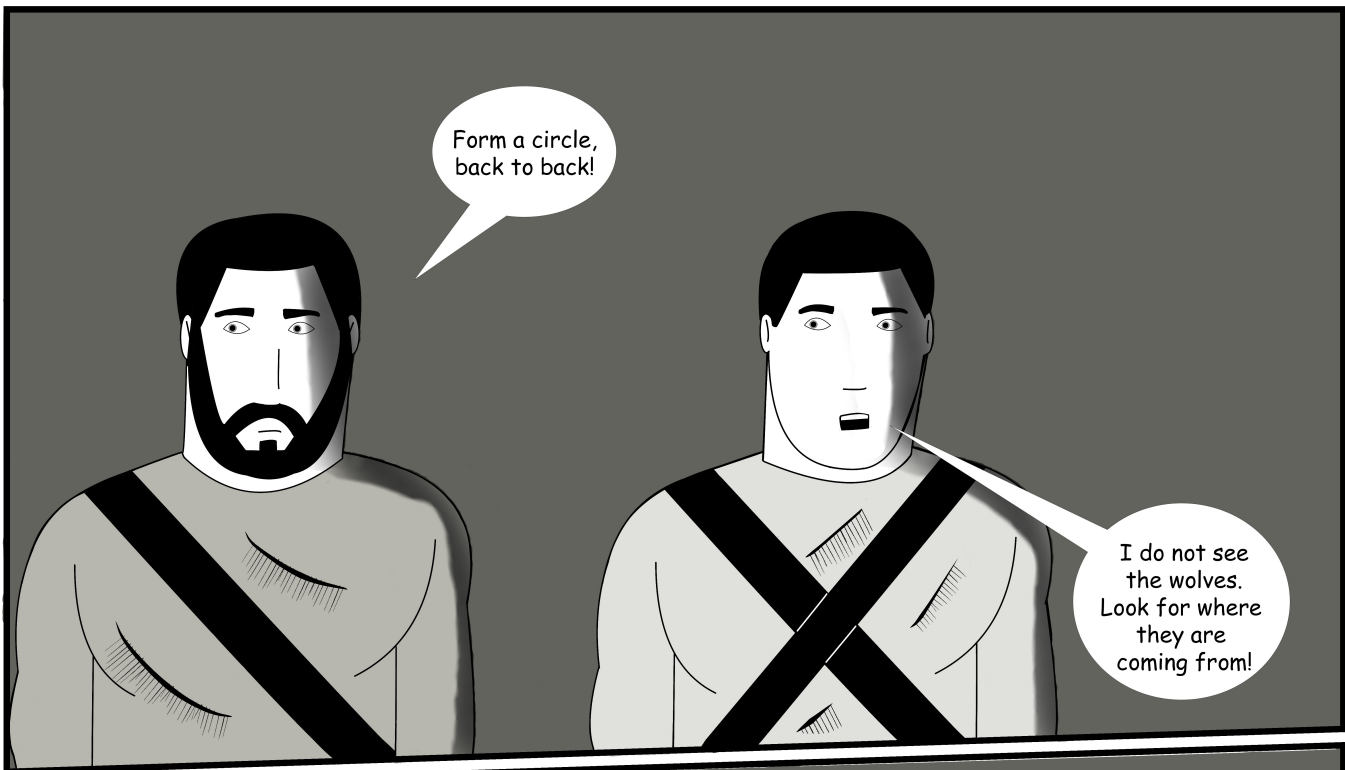

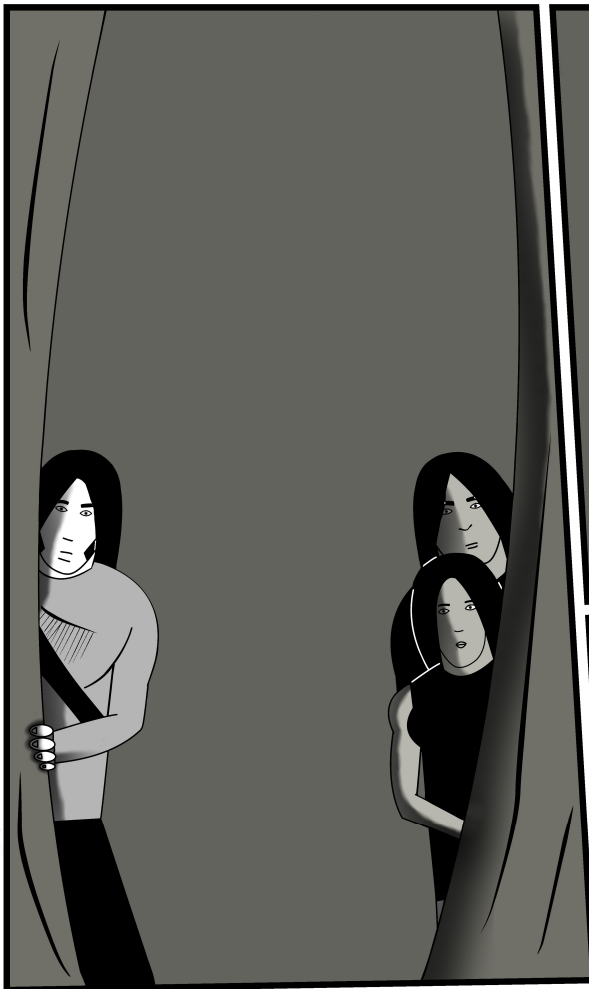

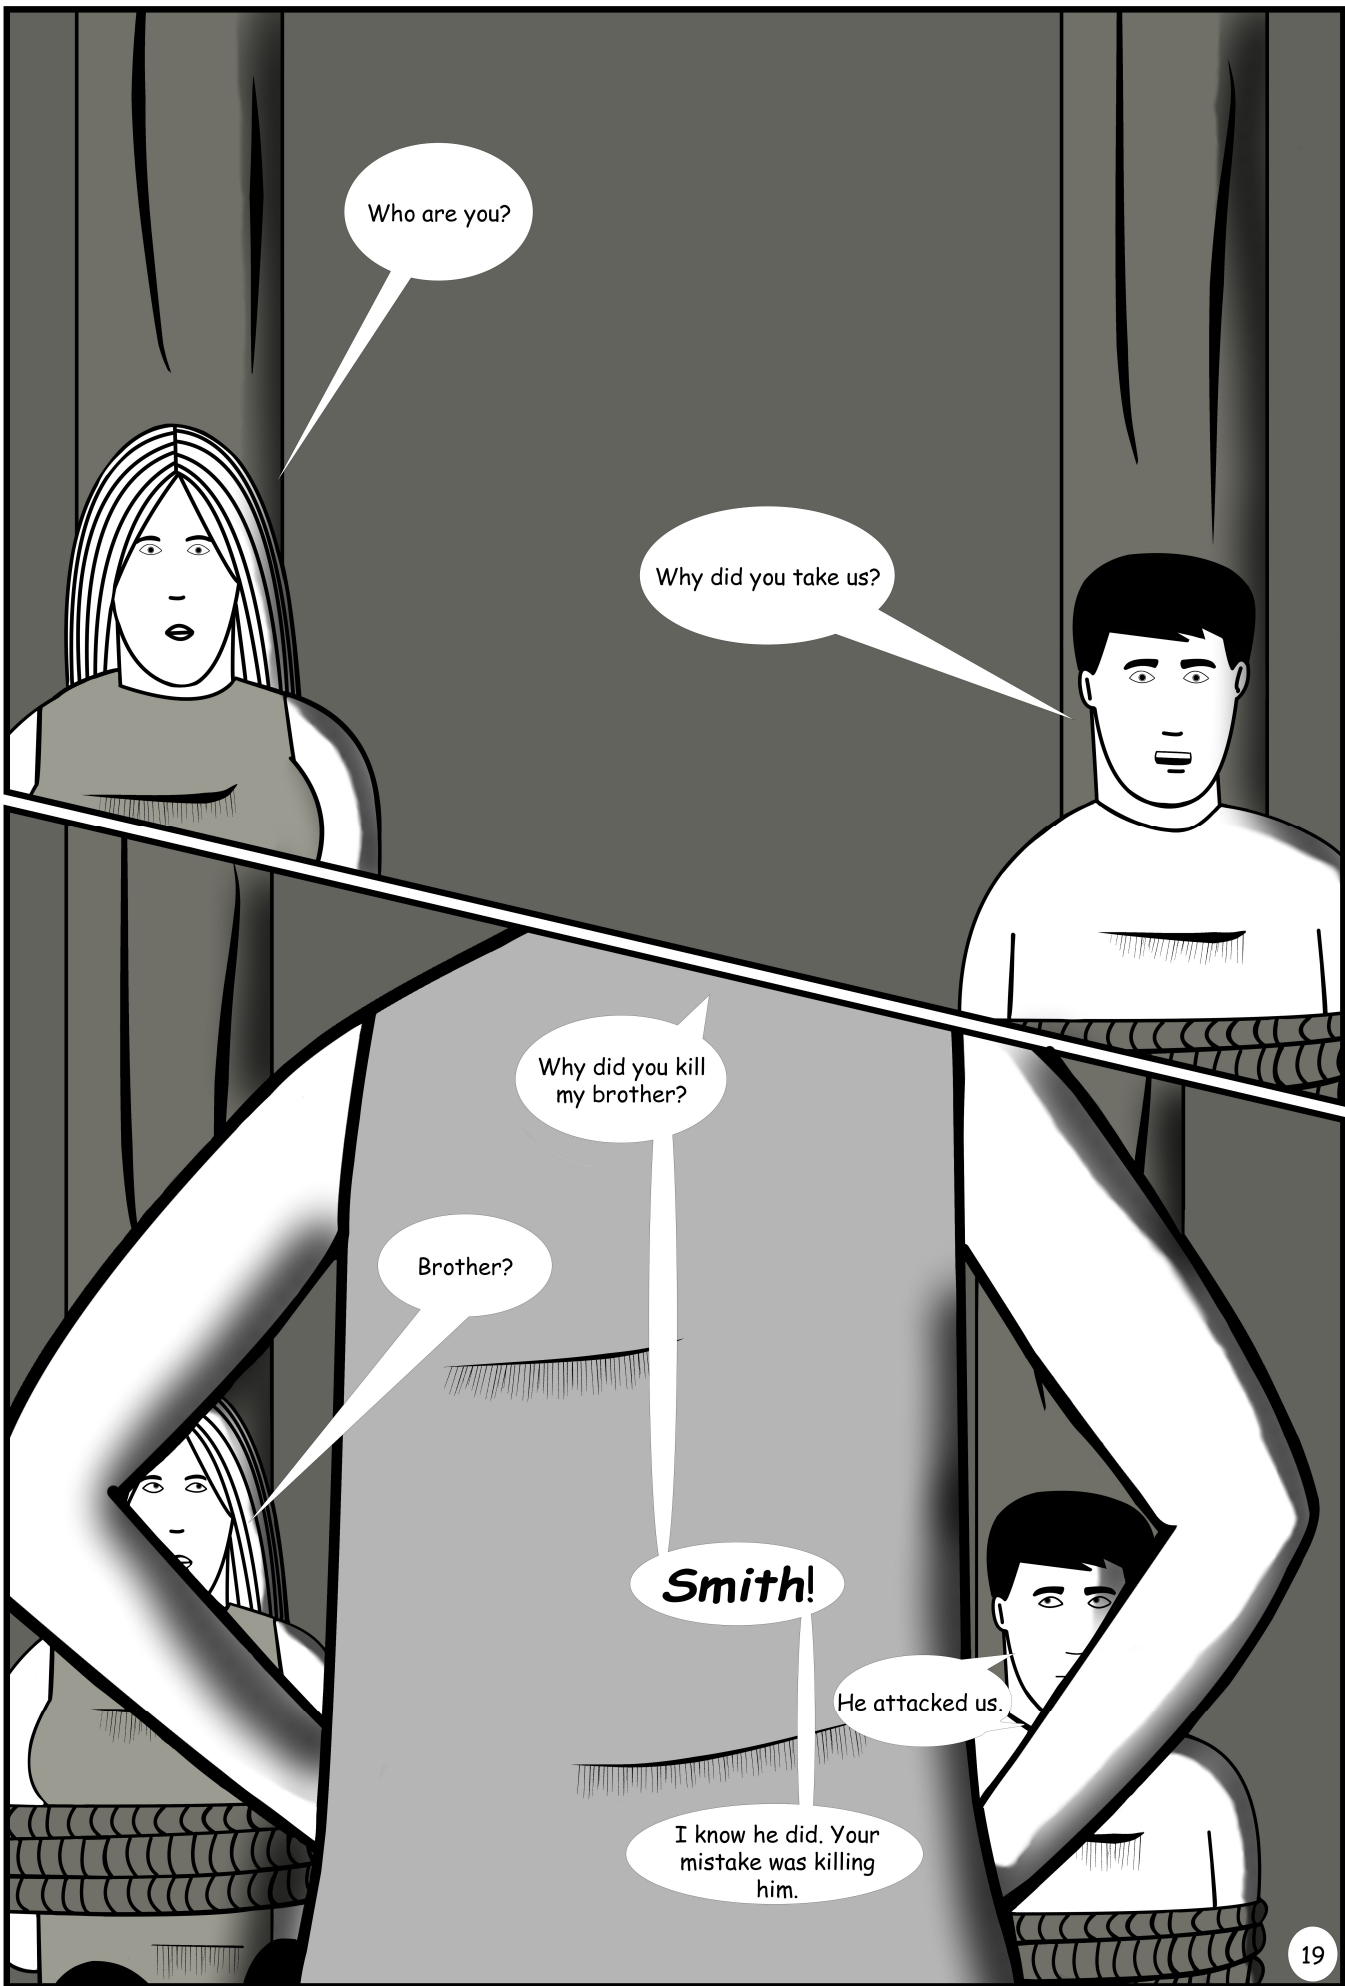

Who are you?

Why did you take us?

Why did you kill my brother?

Brother?

Smith!

He attacked us.

I know he did. Your mistake was killing him.

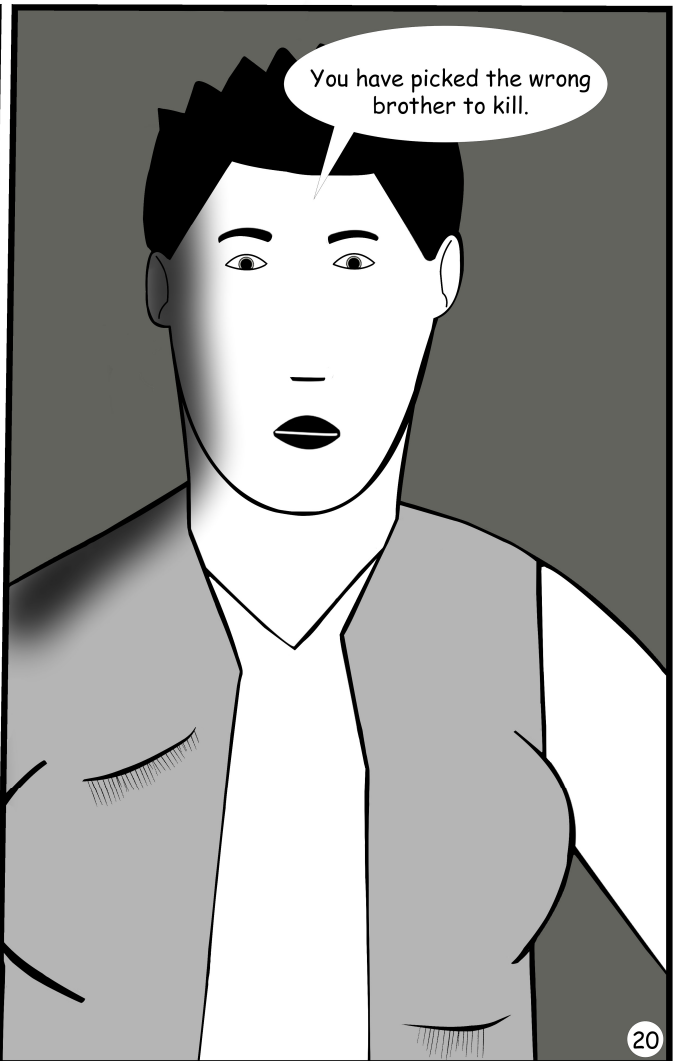

What do you want?

Well, I want you all dead. I will let the others find you. I will kill them. After you watch that, you will die.

You have picked the wrong group for that plan.

You have picked the wrong brother to kill.

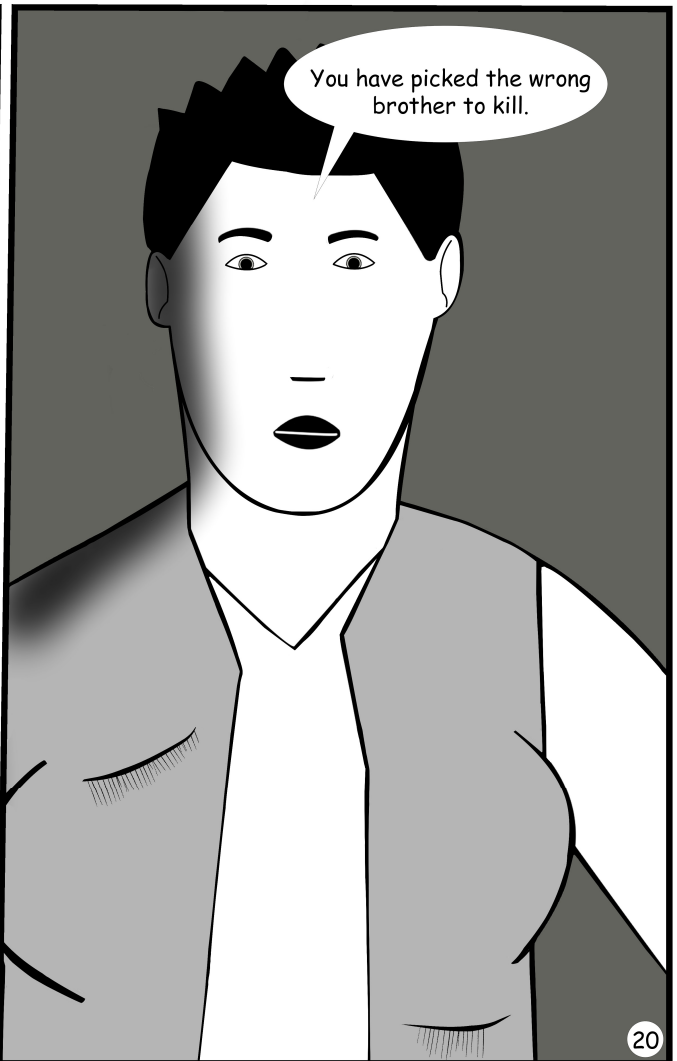

What do you want?

Well, I want you all dead. I will let the others find you. I will kill them. After you watch that, you will die.

You have picked the wrong group for that plan.

You have picked the wrong brother to kill.

Can we just get them now?

We need to get back to Nepo.

I think that we should get more of us.

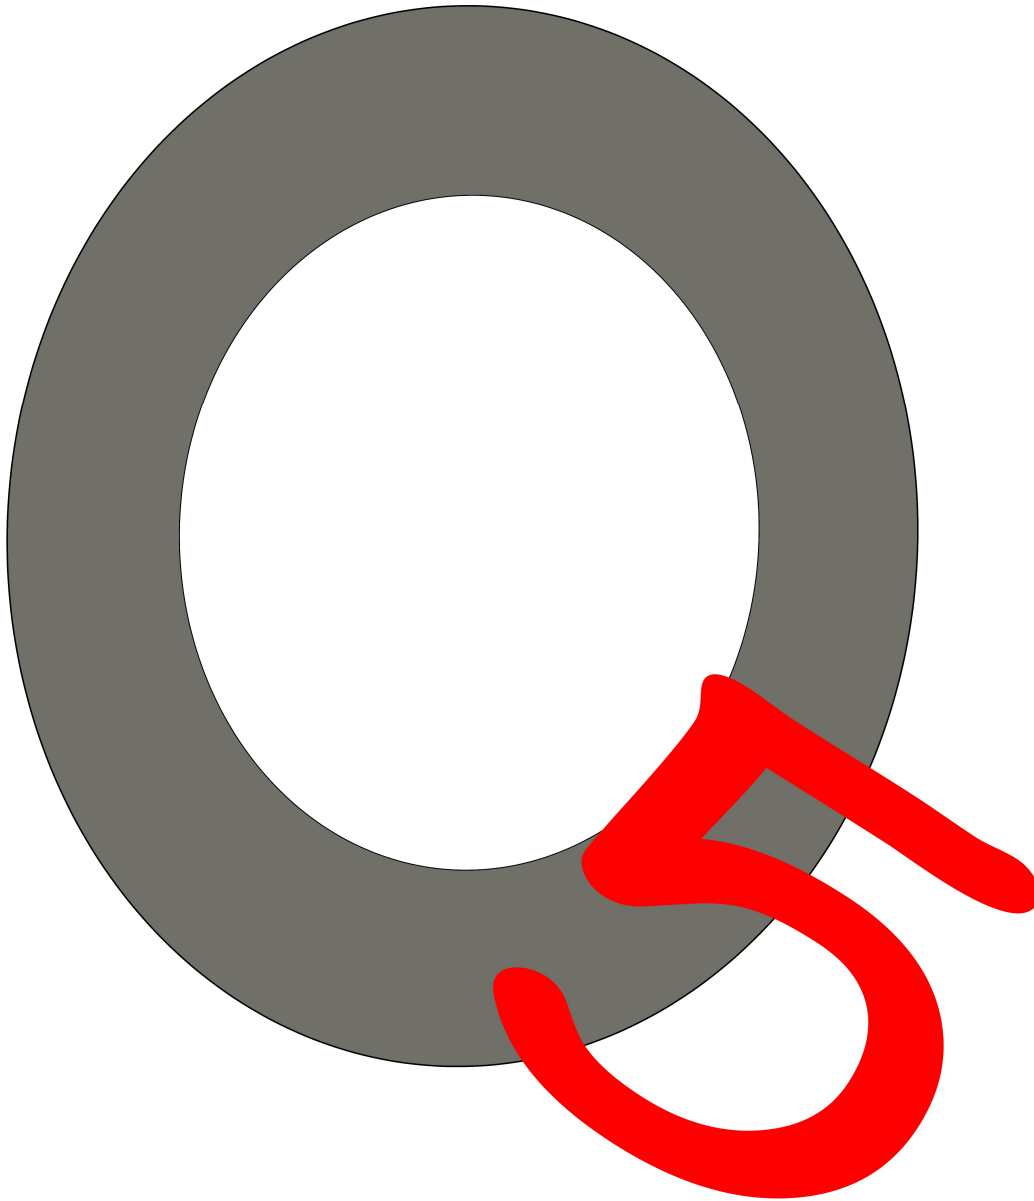

Den Mother. Did we serve you well?

If you did Smith would be alive and attacking them with us.

We are ready.
