

The Queen's Five

27

Trapped in the past freed in the present

Lily and Devcon are hostage. Nepo and the others are looking to save them.
The five brothers near Hiram's Kingdom.

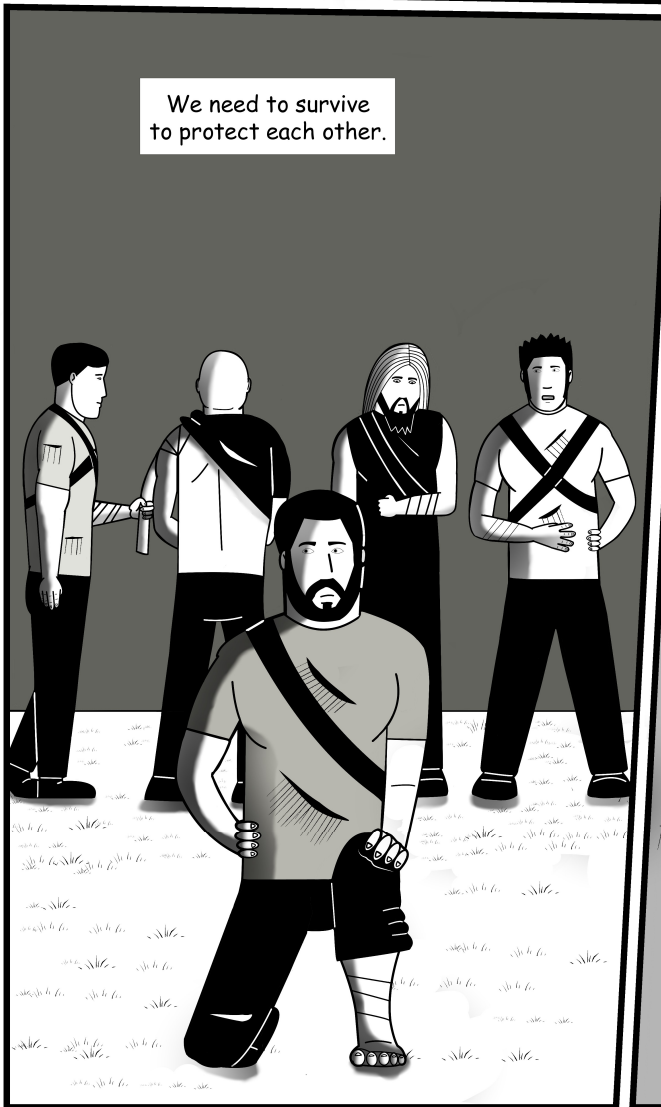

Sometimes we do not get to pick the fights that we are in.

We do it for friends, family, and they are the people we love.

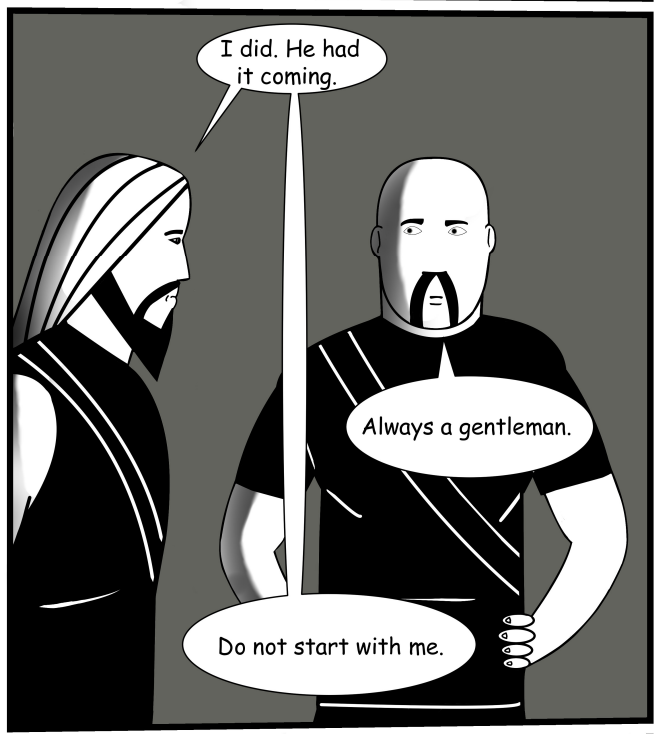

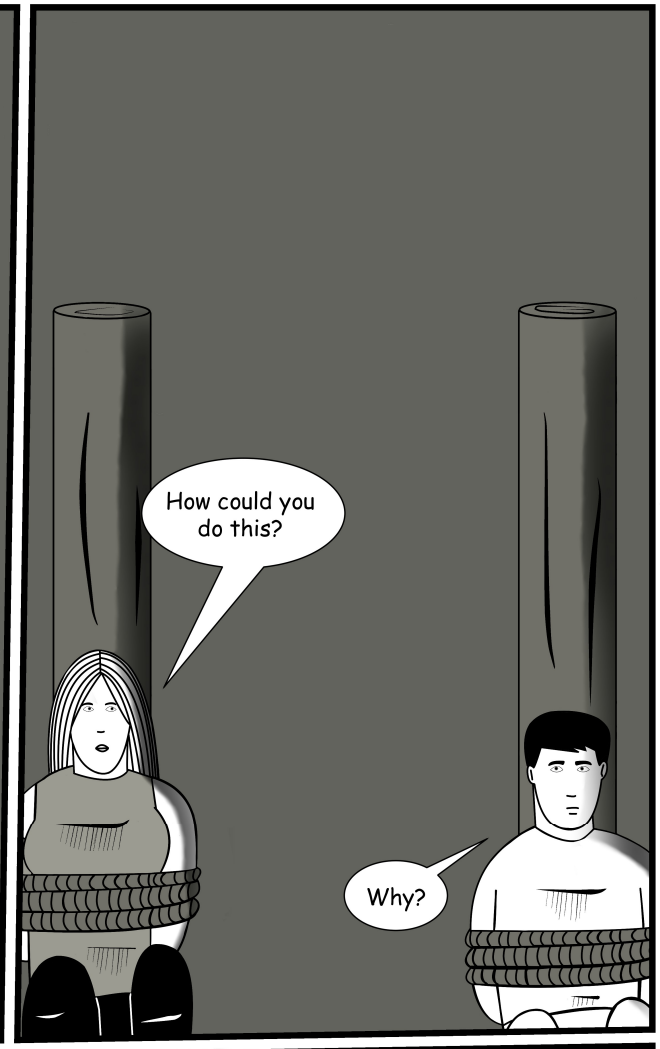

We need to survive to protect each other.

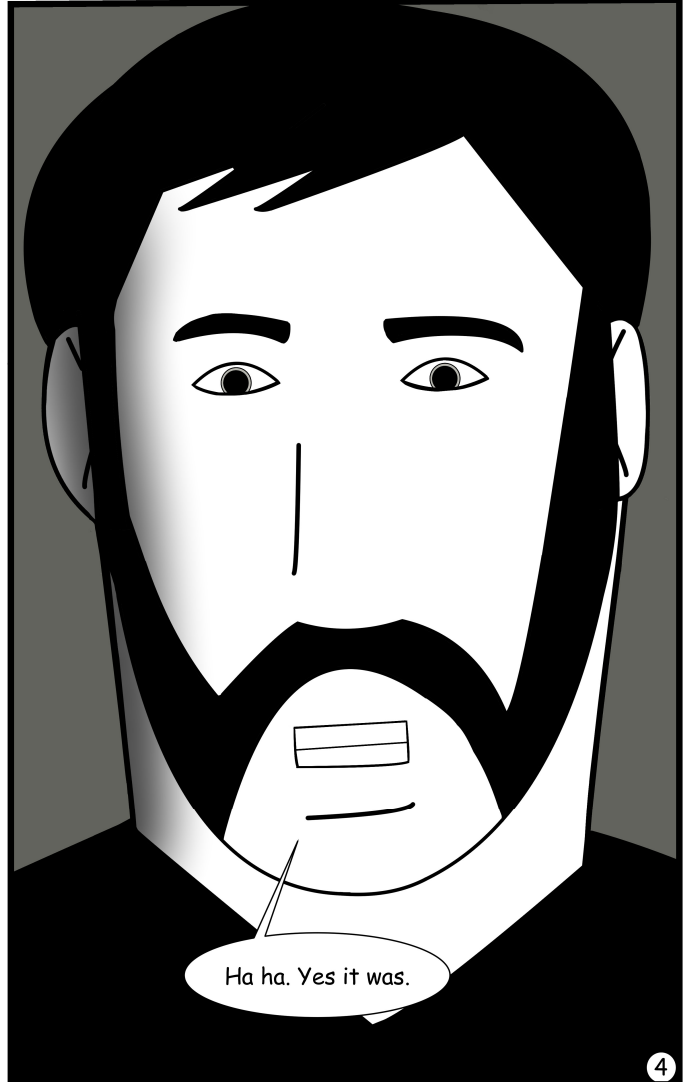

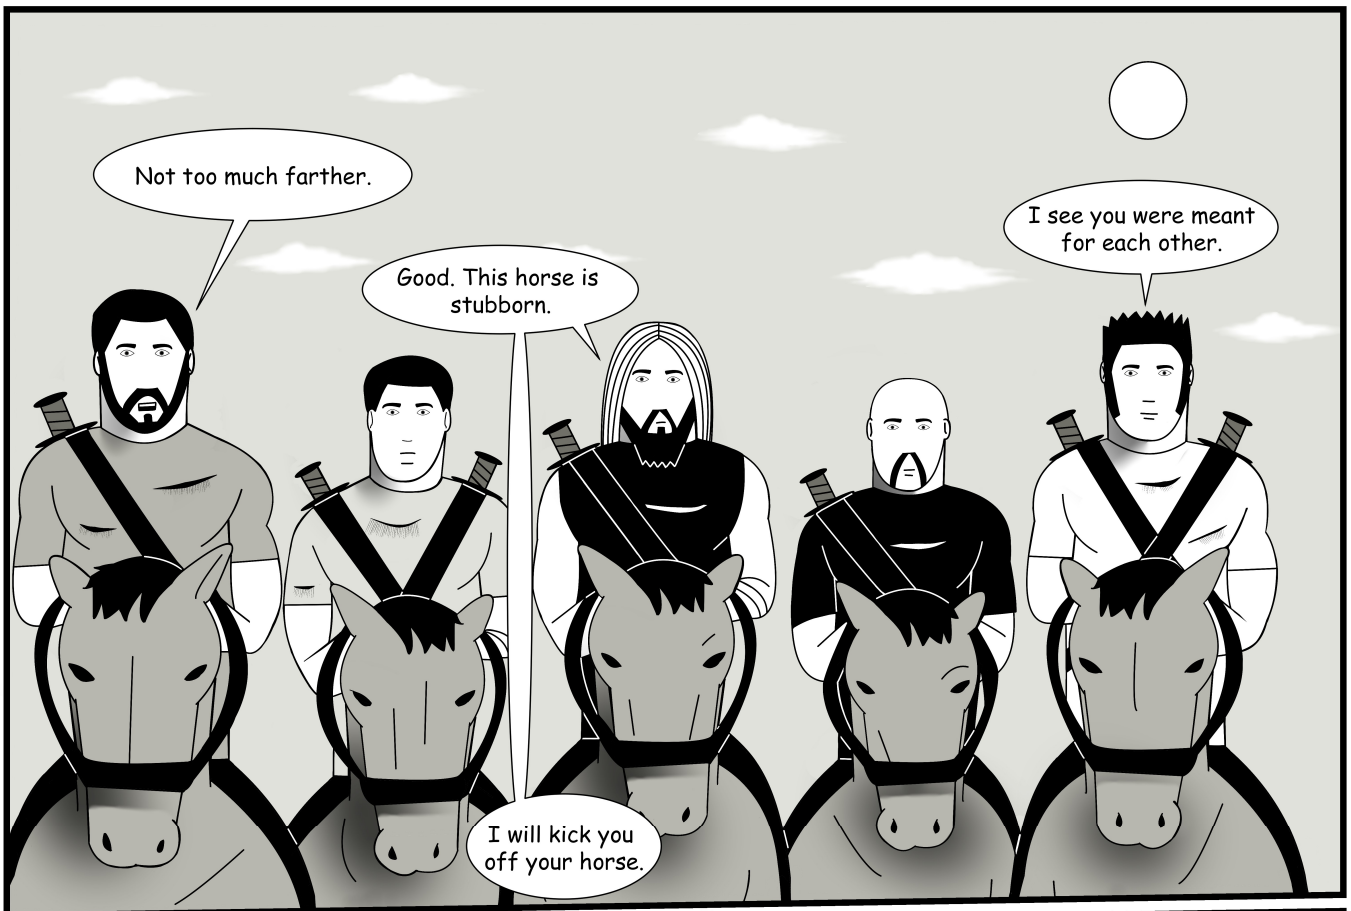

Sometimes we are given no choice.

Not too much farther.

Good. This horse is stubborn.

I see you were meant for each other.

I will kick you off your horse.

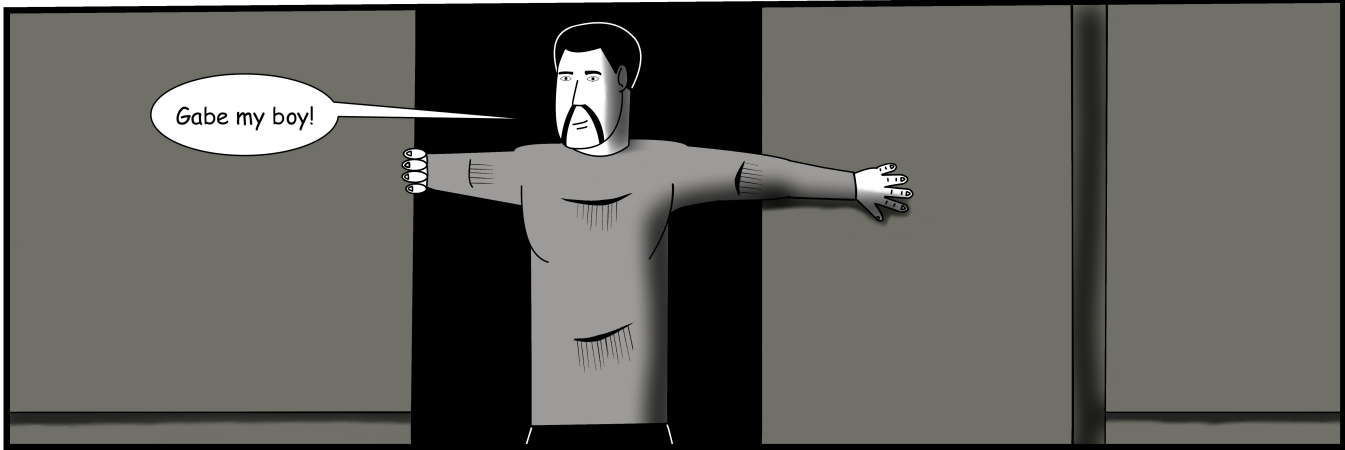

My brothers, love them or not, are blood. I am stuck with them. Most of the time I am happy about that.

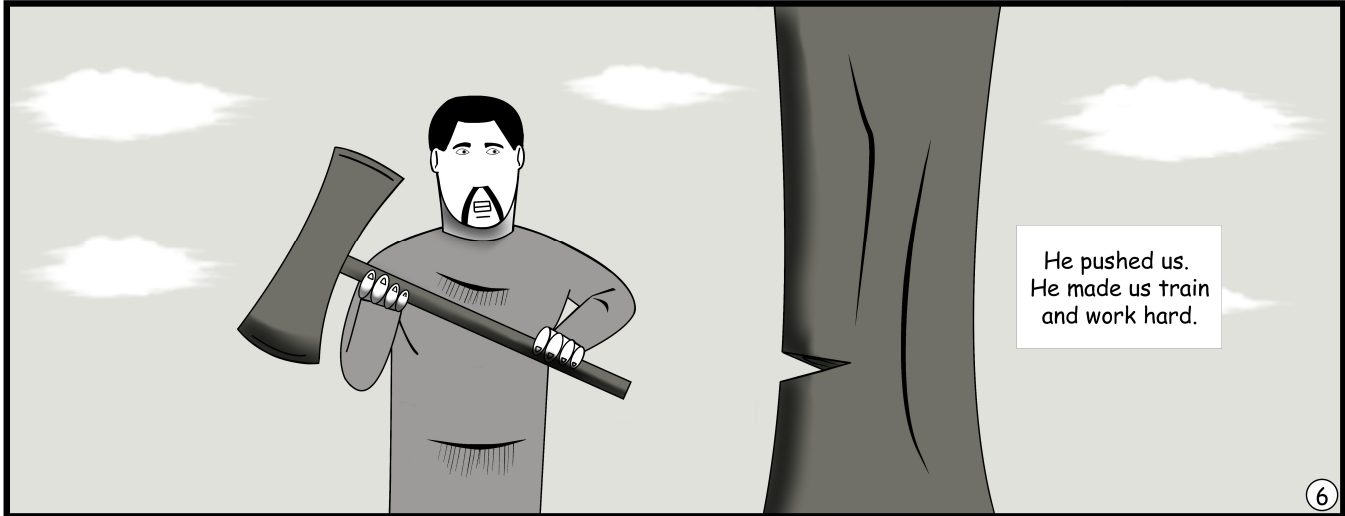

We have a home.
Maybe our new home can heal
what we went through.

We had men that wanted my father to do work for them. He had refused and they kept coming back. He said that their goals were not his.

Gabe my boy!

He pushed us.
He made us train
and work hard.

Devcon, are your ropes loose at all?

No, I tried. You?

Same here.

Do you think they will kill us?

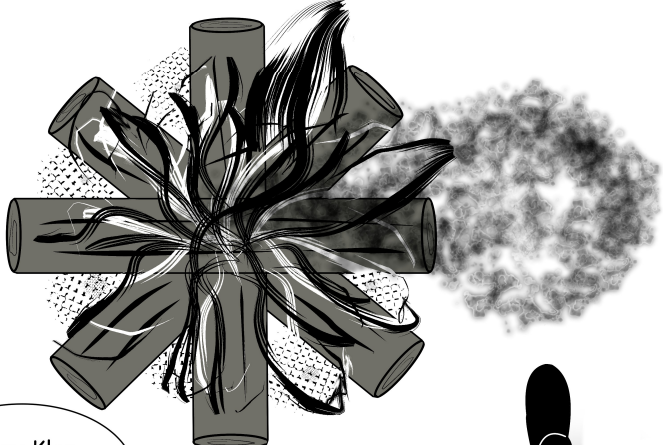

No. I think that they are trying to get something. We are what they are using to get that something. Irma is trying to scare us.

You are quiet for a change Gabe.

I like quiet Gabe.

I was just thinking...

Since when?

Funny Klen. I was thinking about father.

I do that often. I do miss him.

It would only be right. I do not think father would want us to take that risk, but he deserved justice.

Edward, let someone else talk.

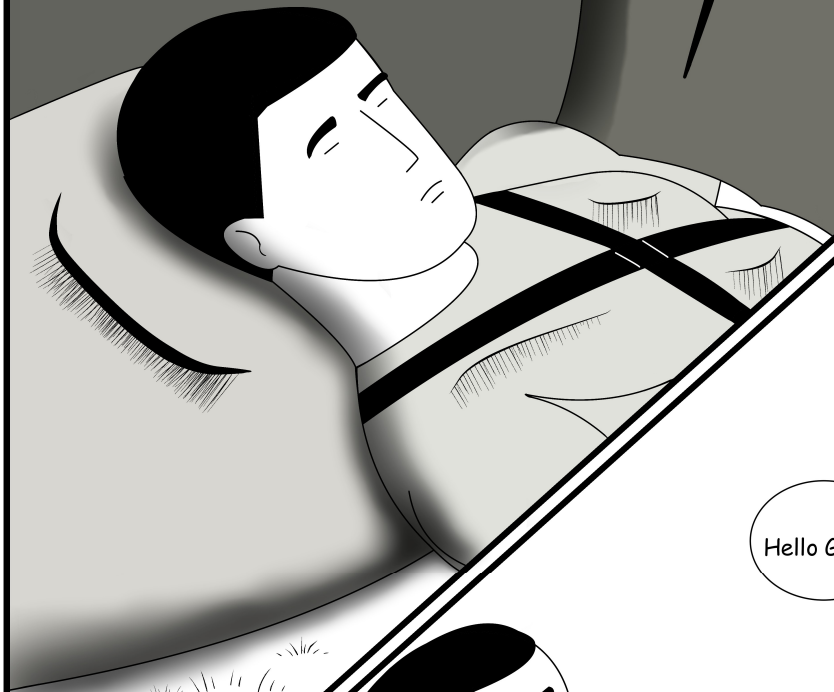

I can help you sleep right now Klen if you want.

Ha! No I am good.

We should get some rest.

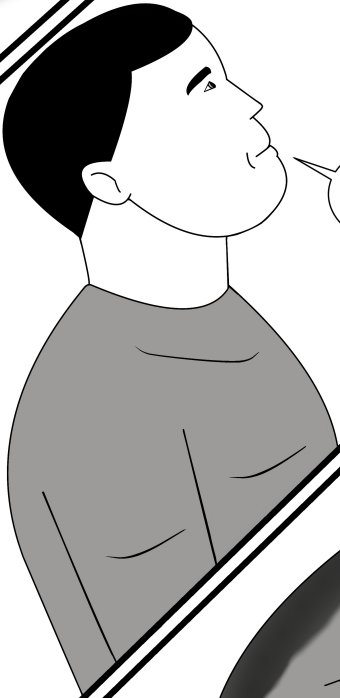

I fell asleep after my turn to be the lookout.
After talking about father, of course I would dream of him.

I love these dreams.

Hello Gabe.

I miss you.

Owww!

I thought your people would have been here
for you both by now.

You have been awake all night.
Go to sleep and they will come. They will come to kill you. You sure that is what you want?

You are funny Lily.
We will let you go as long as they give us your home. It was nice to live there. We have been in the woods for too long.
We could use the rest again.

You can rest underground
soon enough.

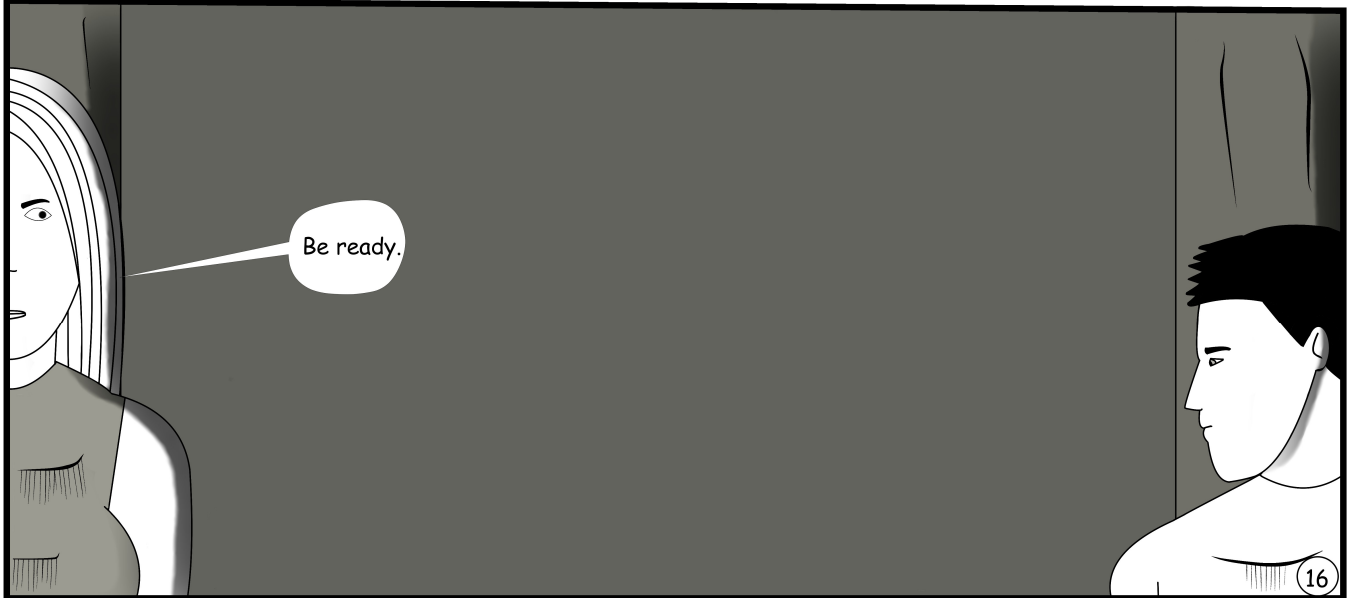

There is smoke
in the woods!

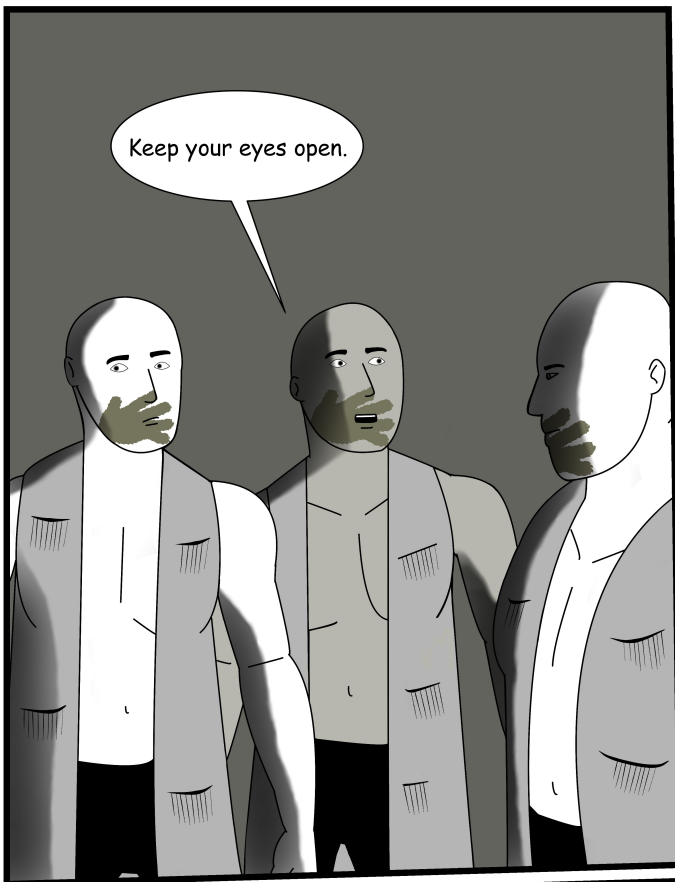

We will go look.

You men stay with these two. If they come for them,
kill them both.

Be ready.

Keep your eyes open.

THUNK

No!!

Hello Lily.

Devcon.

Thank you.

Hello.
We have to leave quickly.

We need to get back to our prisoners. This fire was a distraction.

Are either of you hurt?
Did they harm you?

I was stuck in the head. That was the only harm.

Same for me.

Nepo, we need to move. That fire that you set will not keep them away for long.

Find them. Kill Lily and the boy if you must.

Move out!!!

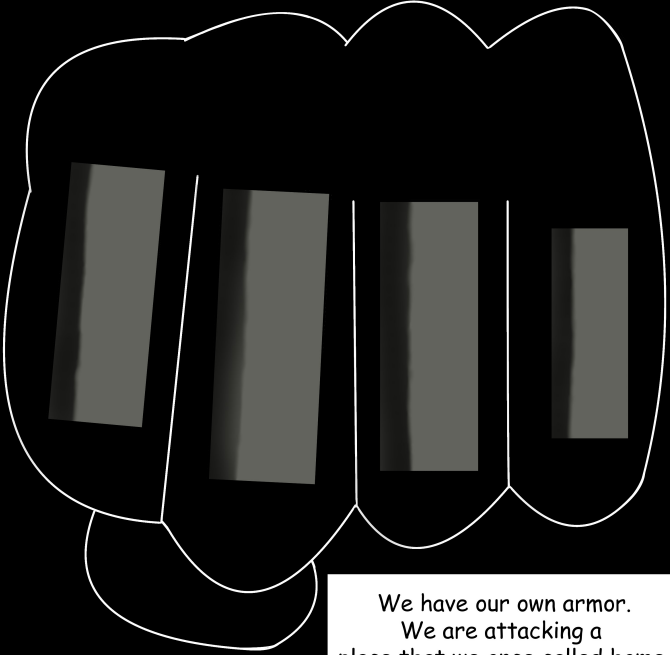

We are not sure what we are heading toward.

We will move quiet and fast.

We do not know how many men are in there. Alice told us they now have all of Hiram's armor. Armor made for men that Hiram trusted. So this might be a challenge.

We have our own armor. We are attacking a place that we once called home.

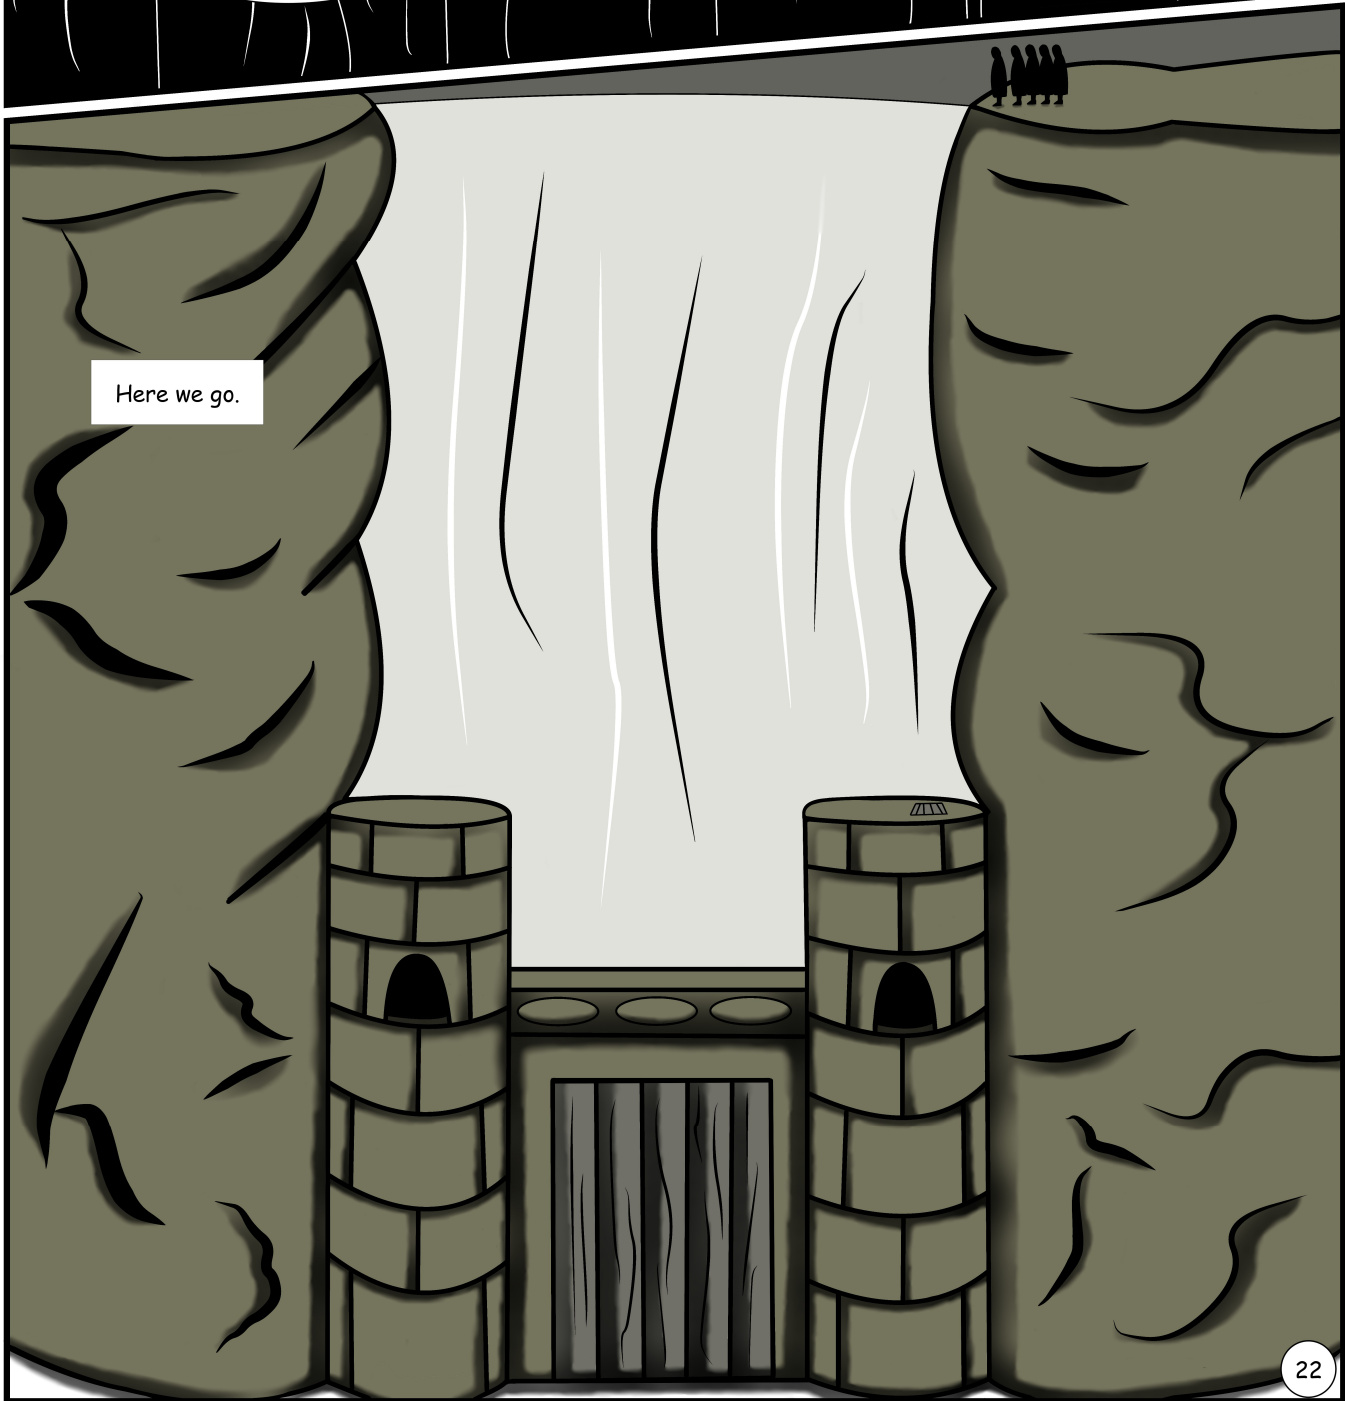

Today, we take it back. For Hiram.

Kill them all.

I thought we could talk to them.

This is why you fail.

Here we go.
